See You IN CHURCH Sunday

Here is the hope of America... young life with all its promise of youthfulness and idealism. Typical of millions of young Americans is this young fisherman. He matches the country with its marvelous resources scarcely discovered. He is healthy, energetic and creative. His tattered hat, rugged body and keen sense of humor declares him capable of his share of tomorrow's responsibility. God planted rich values in the land and in human persons. He will sustain this young fisherman as he makes himself useful to humanity.

This young American has a keen sense of morality, the goodness and the omnipotence of God... he goes to church. His virtues are many and he lives by the Golden Rule. He observes the habits of all of us every day. He is a dreamer. May we help him to dream dreams of worth and usefulness and to plan worthy ends he is to seek. He is your boy and mine. May we as good people assist in planning his program, his life. He is ours to mold and inspire. Let us take him to church regularly and stamp him or bend him for all the tomorrows.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with sanctification, stranger democracy, for a better citizenship and a molding religious character. Evangelists today declare the office of state in these perilous times. They, with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

Rev. Killman May Preach to Aborigine Tribespeople

REV. P. L. LIDDELL
... Opening Series

Evangelistic Services to Open Tuesday

Spring Evangelistic Services conducted by Rev. P. L. Liddell will open at the Church of the Nazarene, 1501 W. Carson St., Tuesday night and continue through Easter Sunday, April 13, it was announced yesterday.

Rev. Liddell, of Denver, Colo., is a graduate of Olivet Nazarene College, Kankakee, Ill., and is an accomplished musician, playing the trombone and singing vocal solos.

An Air Force pilot during World War II, the young evangelist was pastor of the Golden Colo., Nazarene church before entering evangelistic work.

Services here will be held at 7:30 each evening and at 11 a.m. each Sunday.

The Rev. J. R. Killman, traveling with a Youth for Christ group in Formosa, may travel among the aboriginal tribes in the mountains back of Formosa, according to a report received his week.

Mr. Killman stated that he has been asked to go with an interpreter to these tribespeople where no white man ever has gone and speak to them. There are more than 750 Christians among the tribesmen, he said, in a thriving church begun only recently by a native convert.

However, his report reads, he has made tentative plans to return to the states, leaving Formosa next Tuesday, but if sufficient funds are supplied he will obtain the necessary passes to allow the journey.

The Youth for Christ team spoke before students at the Bible Institute in Formosa on its 51st birthday; all those who attended the celebration are young missionaries and pastors, he said.

Assistant pastor of the First Baptist Church here, Mr. Killman is on a six-week mission in the Orient. Information about the missionary work can be obtained from the church, it was stated.

Former Pastors To Be Guests At Foursquare

Rev. and Mrs. Ben Griffith Sr., former pastors at the Torrance Foursquare Church, will be guest speakers at the church on Friday, April 4, at 7:30 p.m., it was announced yesterday.

For several years the Griffiths have been pastors of the large El Monte Foursquare Church, according to Rev. Arthur Pedersen, present pastor of the Torrance church.

SUNRISE SERVICES SLATED

Fourth Annual Easter Sunrise Services will be held at the Green Hills Memorial Park at Western and Palos Verdes Dr. North Easter Sunday, April 13, beginning at 5:25 a.m., it was announced yesterday.

To be conducted under the auspices of the Harbor Area Ministerial Association, the service is planned to "give worshippers a spiritual reawakening through beautiful music and devotions," according to Robert F. Hopper, vice-president and general manager of the park.

Dr. Andrew MacCormick, of the First Presbyterian Church of San Pedro, will give the Easter message.

PV College Names Vice-President

Appointment of Frank Burris Weir as vice president of Palos Verdes College was announced yesterday by the Board of Trustees. Weir joined the college in 1948 as an art instructor.

Reflections

By J. HUGH SHERFEE, JR.

MILKMAN ARE DEPENDABLE

The Griffiths have announced their plans to travel to the Sargoa Islands as missionaries, leaving sometime in June.

Rev. Pedersen also announced that revival services would be held at the Foursquare Church during the Holy Week beginning April 6 and continuing through Easter Sunday. The services will be under auspices of the Crusader Youth of the church. The pulpit will be occupied by Evangelists Damon Rude, Don Sheffer and Wallace Mason.

A cow is demanding. She is somewhat old fashioned—doesn't put her milk into bottles. From grass to milk, in bottles, on our doorstep, is a highly complex business. For men who handle her product there are no holidays, no time out for play. Blistering heat or bitter cold, that cow is milked, milk is treated, bottled and delivered—and that takes men devoted to their labor.

Our milkmen are like taxes; they're always there. We take time out to participate in our favorite recreation; the only time out our milkmen take is to sleep and not much of that. If there is one commodity we can be certain to receive, it is milk.

I think if perpetual motion ever becomes a reality, milkmen, in some way, will have solved the riddle. They're dependable. They're there, every day.
